Bress, Sanders Again Named to Bench

U.S. Attorney David G. Bress and Harold Barefoot Sanders Jr. were nominated again yesterday by President Johnson to Federal District judgeships.

He asked the Senate to approve appointment of Bress to the District Court here and Sanders to the U.S. Court of Appeals here.

Both men were nominated in the last session of Congress but the Senate Judiciary Committee failed to act on the nominations after they were blocked by Sen. Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.). Sanders, of Texas, is a White House legislative assistant.
